TERMS AND CONDITIONS participation to InGRID-2 events

Attendance

Travel and accommodation costs can be reimbursed for participants who attend an InGRID-2 event. The maximum number of nights to be reimbursed equals the number of attended meeting days. Participants are required to preferably attend the full length of the event.

Related costs and reimbursement

Attendance at InGRID-2 events is free of charge.

Participants can find more details and rules about eligible costs as well as the reimbursement limits and procedure in the financial information of the event in question.

Insurance

While the organising committee of the InGRID-2 events will make every effort to ensure the safety and well-being of all conference members and associates, responsibility cannot be taken for any accidents or damage that may occur during the event.

General Data Protection Regulation

By completing this registration your e-mailaddress will be added to the InGRID mailinglist. This mailinglist will only be used for the dissemination of newsletters and newflashes and will not be disclosed to any third parties. Unsubscribing from this mailinglist is possible in each newsletter or newflash, or via this link: <https://hiva.kuleuven.be/listgui/inclusivegrowth/unsubscribe.php>

A photographer can attend the InGRID-2 events. Photos taken at our events can be used in the dissemination on this event or on the InGRID-2 project. If you prefer not to be photographed, please inform the event organiser about this. Of course, we will respect this choice.

If you have any remarks or questions regarding this, please contact ine.smits@kuleuven.be for more information or help.
